ABOUT THE NAEMSE LEVEL 1 INSTRUCTOR COURSE

Whether you're new to EMS education or an experienced instructor looking to enhance your classroom abilities, the NAEMSE Level 1 Instructor Course is designed for you. For over twenty years, this evidence-based program has been the benchmark for quality EMS instruction. Based on the DOT/NHTSA 2002 National Guidelines and grounded in current best practices, this course is highly respected and widely accepted by state offices of EMS as a required instructor course to teach EMS courses. Regularly updated to reflect the latest in instructional methodology and standards, the course offers 40 CAPCE-approved continuing education hours upon successful completion. The curriculum is aligned with National EMS Education Standards domain/objectives and NREMT testing methodologies and standards, ensuring you're equipped with the essential principles for effective EMS instruction.
